The weather has been hovering below zero for the past few days.

Clay Rose, of Lee City, who has been sick for some time, is somewhat improved.

One of the O. & K. railway company's passenger coaches was considerably damaged last week by the explosion of an oil stove.

Willie Kash died at his home in Hazel Green last Friday night, of chronic dysentery, contracted in the Philippines as a soldier.

A new printing plant is being put in at Campton to publish a weekly paper. L. T. Hovermale, of Frenchburg, will be editor.

Fiendish Suffering
Is often caused by sores, ulcers and cancer, that eat away your skin.
Wm. Bedell, of Flat Rock, Mich., says:
"I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, for Ulcers, Sores and Cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." Soothes and heals cuts, burns and scalds. 50¢ at The Jackson Drug Co.; guaranteed.

CORRESPONDENCE. TROUBLESOME.

Uncle John T. Williams, who has been on the sick list for the past three weeks, is able to be out again.

Wm. Stacy, a merchant of this place, has been confined to his room with rheumatism, but is able to be out again.

C. L. Napier and Gran Napier passed through here a few days ago with B. S. Phillips, taking him to Lexington to the asylum.

Hindman to spend a fortnight with his brother, Isom Terry, who is said to be in declining health.

Jasper Stacy has just completed his job of sawlogging at this place.
He hauled two hundred and sixty-five in three weeks. Mr. Stacy is a hustler.

Misses Amy Smith, Serilda and Sallie Holiday, of this vicinity, left here a few days ago for Hazard, where they expect to attend school this winter and spring.

Now, boys, is the time to subscribe for THE BREATHITT NEWS.
It is better and brighter than ever.
Don't delay. You can get it for the small sum of one dollar per year.

Lewis Harvey, of Hazard, is taking depositions in a lawsuit between himself and Jones, of Breath-itt. Mr. Harvey is representing the Kentucky Coke & Coal Company.

Joseph Ritchie, of Hazard, better known as "Wild Joe," has recently moved to the mouth of Tom's Branch, near here. Mr.
Ritchie is a carpenter by trade and is expecting to go into that business here.

Jesse Williams has killed 20 rabbits in the last few days. A. J.
Dobson offers a reward of five cents for every one killed around his young orchard. They prove to be a great damage to young fruit trees.

The Delineator for March.
Containing the first authentic reports of the Spring and Summer styles, the March Delineator is of special interest to the woman of fashion, and a most attractive number throughout. A discussion of "The Use and Abuse of Ar-morial Bearings," by William Armstrong Crozier, is a noteworthy contribution, containing a fund of information in regard to coat armor that is little known or widely disregarded. N. Hudson Moore's article on "Old Pewter," the first in a series of kindred subjects, will appeal particularly to collectors, and the story of Charlotte Elliott's famous hymn, "Just as I Am," as related by Allan Sutherland, is of greatest interest.
Other features are "Robert and Clara Schumann," by Gustav Kobbe, in the Composers' Series, "The Game of Politics as it is Played in Washington"—and more particularly, woman's part in it—by "Marie Columbia," and a reproduction of miniatures from the Marie collection. There are two notable pieces of fiction in "The Things That Are Real," by Zona Gale, and "His Honor vs. Cupid," by Virginia Woodward Cloud, in addition to delightful verse. For the young folks, L. Frank Baum gives an "Animal Fairy Tale," Grace MacGowan Cook a "Son Riley Rabbit" story, and Lina Beard an amusing pastime. There are the usual departments and other matter of interest to women within and without the home.

All Kinds of People.
There is probably no place on earth better than a country newspaper office to learn how many kinds of people there are. Some get huffy if a statement is sent, others will not pay until they receive a statement. Some will pay without a statement, and others will not pay whether a statement is sent or not. Some thought they owed more and some thought they didn't owe so much. Some say they couldn't get along without the paper and others say it don't amount to much, and so on down the line.—Exchange.

Deserved Popularity.
To cure Constipation and Liver troubles by gently moving the bowels and acting as a tonic to the liver, take Little Early Risers. These Famous Little Pills are mild, pleasant and harmless, but effective and sure. Their universal use for many years is a strong guarantee of their popularity and usefulness. Sold by M. S. Crain.

Jackson Boy on Program.

At a meeting held Monday afternoon at Center College, Danville, by the senior class the following young gentlemen were chosen to deliver speeches on class day during the commencement week: Salutatorian, Gib Letcher, Henderson; historian, John Martin, Owenton; orator, J. M. P.
Thacher, Somerset; prophet, Herbert Spencer, Jackson; grumbler, E. C. Roy, Frankfort; poet, Geo.
Watson, Frankfort; gifterian, Arthur Rohr, Middlesboro; mimic, G. O. Sanders, Louisville.

Syndicate to Develop Land.

A special to the Courier-Journal from Cincinnati under date of January 31st says:

To open and develop the coal and mineral properties of 20,000 acres of land in Breathitt and Perry counties, Ky., a syndicate, which, in turn will form a $5,000-000 company, is being organized by D. C. McCready, Carlisle building; Col. D. D. Flanagan, of College Hill, and Otto Germer, of Erie, Pa., are the financial heads.

The lands are part of holdings in Breathitt, Perry, Leslie, Knott and Letcher counties, amounting in all to 147,000 acres. Col. Flanagan and Otto Germer, in 1900 associated themselves with Edward Germer and Charles Ebisch, both of Erie, and since then have been securing rights of way, titles for land, and mineral rights.

Within the last few weeks these details have been perfected at frequent meetings at the St. Nicholas Hotel. McCready being heavily interested, undertook to organize the syndicate and subsequent company. The titles were secured from more than 100 holders of land.

Part of the plan is to build a town on the north fork of the Kentucky river, twelve miles south of Jackson. One thousand two hundred houses will be erected, and fourteen miles of railroad track laid.

The Landrum Family.

EDITOR BREATHITT NEWS:
The following is a short history of the Landrum family of Kentucky:

James Landrum was born in Scotland in 1703. Came to this country in the year 1725, and settled on the James river in Virginia.
He was a local preacher and raised a large family of boys. His oldest son, Francis Landrum, was born in 1738, and was a local preacher in the Methodist church for thirty years. Francis Land-rum had several boys, the oldest, James Landrum, and Francis Land-rum, both preachers in the Methodist church. Francis Landrum was born in 1752, and raised a large family in Louisa county, Virginia.
Reuben Landrum, his son, was born in 1774, married Miss Patsy Bibb and moved to Kentucky and settled in Clark county, where he raised a large family. His oldest son, William B. Landrum, was a member of the first conference held in Kentucky. Reuben W.
Landrum, his next oldest son, was born March 17, 1811, joined the Methodist church in 1828, became a licensed preacher in 1832 and joined the conference in 1834. He raised seven sons and two daughters. Robert Landrum, his fifth son, was born in 1836 in Breathitt county, Ky., joined the Methodist church in 1868, was licensed to preach in 1888, and is still living in Breathitt county, and holding to the faith of his forefathers.

I have given this short sketch of history to show the Christian character of the Landrum family of Kentucky.

R. B. LANDRUM,
Lost Creek, Ky.

R. M. Carpenter, of Campton, died at his home last Wednesday.
He was about sixty years old and was a veteran of the Civil war. He was a member of the Red Men's lodge and was buried by that order. He formerly lived in this county, moving to Campton only a few years ago. He had many relatives in this county.

A NOVEL INSOMNIA REMEDY.

In a recent book Mr. Stackpool O'Dell puts forward a novel remedy for sleeplessness. He says: Take a card about the size of a sheet of foolscap and obtain a bottle of luminous paint. Write with the paint upon the card the words, "Sleep, sleep, sleep," large and clear. Place this card in the daytime where the light will get at it and at nighttime in such a position on the wall or on a screen that you will have to lift up your eyes in order to look at it while you are lying in your easiest position on the bed—that is to say, the position in which you generally go to sleep. As you see the illuminated words, repeat them to yourself in a monotonous manner. As the eyelids become tired, let them close. You will not in most cases repeat the words very often before sleep brings on forgetfulness.—Humanitarian.

The Longest Strike.

What is the longest strike on record? There is one, still running in Germany, which has endured for thirty-five years. It has other remarkable features as well, as the strikers are members of parliament, though, it must be admitted, of a small one. They are the deputies to the diet of the principality of Ratze-burg, and they are striking against the reactionary constitution imposed by the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz in 1869.

Since that year the members of the diet have steadily refused to meet, although frequently called upon to do so. Now, however, the new duke has held out the hand of reconciliation and promised to consider their demands for a revision of the constitution, so that the strike will probably soon come to an end.

Cured by Laughing.

Dyspepsia is now to be systematically cured by laughter. It is stated that a Paris doctor in return for a large fee admits patients into his private institution, where the mirth treatment is administered. A few dyspeptics sit around a room and begin to smile at each other. The smile must never be allowed to fade away. On the contrary, it must be developed by will power into a grin and the grin into a guffaw. Then you have to go on laughing until your sides ache, when you will very soon feel much better. A course of a week or two of the treatment at the rate of a couple of hours' giggling a day cures the worst cases of dyspepsia.

A Long Drawn Out Name.

The signing of the marriage register in the case of a prospective English bride will be something of a task. The bride elect, who is known ordinarily as Miss Lyonella Tollemache, is the possessor of no fewer than nine Christian names.
She belongs to a family noted for the number and quaintness of its Christian names and is herself burdened with the following appellation: Lyonella Fredgunda Cuthber-ga Ethelswytha Ideth Ysabel Grace Monica de Orellana Plantagenet Tol-lemache-Tollemache.

Evolution of the Ichthyosaur.

It appears that the ichthyosaur race sprang from small, land living, scaly lizards, with feet armed with claws, and in the last few years in various parts of the world—in North America, Italy, Wurttemberg—savants have worked out almost the whole narrative of a wonderful transformation into large, scallies or smooth skinned swimmers, rescibling the dolphins among mammals, and bringing forth their young alive and at sea.—Henry Fairfield Osborn in Century.

W. L. Welch, of Stanton, was in Jackson Thursday.

Mrs. Dulcena Hampton, of Simps, was in Jackson Thursday.

Rev. R. L. Baker returned home Thursday from a visit to his old home at Sneedville, Tenn.

Miss Mary Irvine left today for Long Grove, Hardin county, to visit her niece, Mrs. G. H. Mc-Afee.

Sheriff McCord, of Clark county, passed through here Thursday on his way to Hazard on official business.

John and Mitchell Parker, brothers, were arrested Thursday by Green Patrick, near Salsersville, on the charge of killing Garfield Gibson at Carter City, Ky.

We acknowledge receipt of an invitation to attend the Winchester Commercial Club Banquet at Winchester, which came off last night, but had to decline in order that the BREATHITT COUNTY NEWS might come out on time. A newspaper man that prints the news is generally so busy at work that he has very little time for recreation or pleasure.

That Tickling in the Throat.

One minute after taking One Minute Cough Cure the tickling in the throat is gone. It acts in the throat—not the stomach. Harmless—good for children.
A. L. Spafford, postmaster at Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup.
Three doses of One Minute Cough Cure half an hour apart speedily cured her.
I cannot praise One Minute Cough Cure too much for what it has done in our family." It always gives relief.
Sold by M. S. Crain.

All Was Not Well.

A naval officer tells of a German, a recruit in the naval service, who during a certain watch was, in accordance with the regulations, calling the hours.

"Seven bells, and all iss vell!" called the German correctly enough.
Those who heard the next call were much astonished by this amusing variation:

"Eight bells, and all iss not vell.
I haf droppit my hat overboard."— Collier's Weekly.

Didn't Speak the Language.

At an evening reception recently two men were interested in one of the young women present. One of them remarked:

"I guess she's from Boston."
"Oh, no, indeed!" replied the other.

"Didn't she ask you if you hadn't resided in that city at one time?"
"No," she said, "Usen't you live in Boston once?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Peculiar Disappearance.

J. D. Rangan, of Butlerville, O., laid the peculiar disappearance of his painful symptoms, of indigestion and biliousness, to Dr. King's New Life Pills.
He says: "They are a perfect remedy for dizziness, sour stomach, headache, constipation, etc." Guaranteed at The Jackson Drug Co., price 25c.
